Commercial lease checklist | 1 of 2

01 Write a clear workplace brief

List headcount, location needs, access and the work your team must do.

Helpful tip: Separate essential needs from preferences before you compare premises.

02 Confirm your actual lease dates

Gather the current lease, variations, notices and written proposals.

Helpful tip: Ask your solicitor to confirm the dates and notice requirements that apply to your documents.

03 Compare the same period

Put each option on the same lease term and area basis.

Helpful tip: Keep cash payments separate from incentive-adjusted comparisons so benefits are not counted twice.

04 List every cost category

Record rent, outgoings, reviews, parking and other quoted costs.

Helpful tip: Mark unknown figures as assumptions with an owner and a date to confirm them.

05 Check the incentive conditions

Record the proposed benefit, timing and conditions in writing.

Helpful tip: Ask how a contribution is paid and what evidence or milestones are required.

06 Check space and site information

Gather plans and inspect the space with the relevant advisers.

Helpful tip: Confirm usable layout, services and access rather than relying on the advertised area alone.

- [ ] 07 Map FitOut responsibilities

  List the proposed landlord works, tenant works and required consents.

  Helpful tip: Give each scope item an owner; ask who prices, approves and delivers it.

- [ ] 08 Plan the move and continuity

  List IT, furniture, access and operational dependencies.

  Helpful tip: Work backwards from a feasible opening date using confirmed supplier and building requirements.

- [ ] 09 Discuss exit and make-good

  Ask your solicitor and advisers to review your actual obligations.

  Helpful tip: Keep condition records and scope questions together; avoid budgeting from a generic price per square metre.

- [ ] 10 Assign decision owners

  Identify who signs off the property choice, budget and legal documents.

  Helpful tip: Maintain one short register of open questions so the same issue is not decided twice.

- [ ] 11 Compare renewal and relocation

  Consider the current premises alongside realistic alternatives.

  Helpful tip: Include move, FitOut and disruption assumptions as well as the proposed rent.

- [ ] 12 Get advice before committing

  Bring the written proposal and unresolved questions to your advisers.

  Helpful tip: A YOS Lease Health Check can help frame the commercial discussion; your solicitor advises on legal interpretation.
