Client-side construction planning checklist | 1 of 2

☐ 01 Define the project outcome

Write down the business need, intended use and opening-day requirements.

Helpful tip: Agree what success looks like before discussing design details.

☐ 02 Record the current stage

Gather the site details, plans, proposals and decisions already made.

Helpful tip: Mark which documents are current and who can approve changes.

☐ 03 Confirm the client decision team

Name the project sponsor and budget and design decision makers.

Helpful tip: Keep approval responsibilities visible to avoid conflicting instructions.

☐ 04 Map the appointed specialists

List designers, engineers, certifiers and other project advisers.

Helpful tip: Ask each appointment to state its scope and specialist responsibilities.

☐ 05 Distinguish management from building

Identify the client-side manager, appointed builder and trade contractors.

Helpful tip: YOS coordinates the agreed client workstream; appointed contractors deliver the building work.

☐ 06 Prepare one scope register

List requirements, exclusions, interfaces and unresolved scope items.

Helpful tip: Give each open item an owner and a next verification step.
