YOUR NEXT WORKPLACE DECISION

A clearer cleaning scope.

Workplace cleaning brief & comparison checklist | 1 of 2

☐ 01 Map the workplace areas

List offices, meeting rooms, kitchens, amenities and shared areas.

Helpful tip: Walk the actual site rather than estimating the scope from floor area alone.

☐ 02 Describe occupancy and use

Record staff numbers, visitor patterns and busy periods.

Helpful tip: Tell the provider about activities that change the cleaning needs.

☐ 03 List tasks by area

Write down the surfaces and tasks you want included.

Helpful tip: Separate regular tasks from periodic or separately requested work.

☐ 04 Agree service frequency

Discuss the visit pattern and priorities for each area.

Helpful tip: Ask for a site-specific recommendation rather than assuming every room needs the same schedule.

☐ 05 Document inclusions and exclusions

Confirm products, consumables, waste handling and specialist work.

Helpful tip: Ask what is supplied by the provider and what remains with your business.

☐ 06 Confirm timing and access

Record suitable service windows and the site contact.

Helpful tip: Agree arrangements around occupied areas and business operations.

- [ ] 07 Agree security arrangements

  Discuss keys, alarms and access permissions directly with the provider.

  Helpful tip: Keep sensitive codes out of quote documents and general email chains.

- [ ] 08 Flag site-specific requirements

  Identify restricted areas, delicate finishes and special instructions.

  Helpful tip: Ask the relevant site specialist to confirm requirements outside ordinary office cleaning.

- [ ] 09 Compare the same written scope

  Give each provider the same task list and access information.

  Helpful tip: Compare exclusions and visit frequency as well as the quoted price.

- [ ] 10 Set the communication pathway

  Name the workplace contact and provider management contact.

  Helpful tip: Agree how an issue is reported, recorded and followed up.

- [ ] 11 Define quality review points

  Record the agreed standards and review arrangements.

  Helpful tip: Use the documented scope when checking whether the service meets expectations.

- [ ] 12 Prepare the commencement handover

  Confirm the final scope, contacts, access and first-visit arrangements.

  Helpful tip: Keep a handover or post-FitOut clean separate from the ongoing service where scopes differ.
