Commercial property buying brief checklist | 1 of 2

☐ 01 Start with the business purpose

Describe how the business will use the premises and what must change.

Helpful tip: Separate operational needs from preferences before reviewing properties.

☐ 02 Record the decision criteria

List location, area, access, parking and essential property features.

Helpful tip: Use the same written criteria for every opportunity you assess.

☐ 03 Map the decision makers

Identify the people approving the brief, budget and purchase.

Helpful tip: Give unresolved questions an owner rather than relying on verbal agreement.

☐ 04 Prepare the adviser team

List your solicitor, accountant, finance broker, valuer and technical advisers.

Helpful tip: Ask each adviser to confirm their scope and the information they need.

☐ 05 Clarify the budget inputs

Gather proposed purchase, transaction, operating and project cost inputs.

Helpful tip: Ask your appointed advisers to review assumptions before treating the budget as available funding.

☐ 06 Identify funding dependencies

Record the questions and information your finance adviser needs.

Helpful tip: Keep funding confirmation distinct from an indicative discussion.

Planning prompts, not a quote or legal advice. Confirm requirements for your actual project. | October 2026

☐ 07 Gather property information

Request available plans, records and inspection information.

Helpful tip: Maintain one folder and track missing documents for your advisers.

☐ 08 Test the proposed use

Describe the activities, occupants and changes you intend.

Helpful tip: Ask the relevant advisers to verify suitability for the actual property and intended use.

☐ 09 Plan specialist investigations

List legal, building, services and other questions for the appointed team.

Helpful tip: Keep each specialist responsible for their own advice and findings.

☐ 10 Compare practical alternatives

Assess shortlisted properties against the same brief.

Helpful tip: Record the reason for trade-offs instead of allowing the listing to define the strategy.

☐ 11 Plan beyond the purchase

List FitOut, furniture, access and business-continuity dependencies.

Helpful tip: Separate the property transaction from the work needed before occupation.

☐ 12 Resolve questions before commitment

Bring the proposal, documents and open issues to your advisers.

Helpful tip: YOS coordinates the commercial workstream; legal, tax, finance and valuation advice stays with your appointed professionals.
