YOUR OFFICE SPACE / NEWCASTLE NSW

Office chair buying checklist

Task brief, adjustment evidence & comparison

01 / BEFORE CHOOSING

12 checks for a better brief.

Use this sheet with your team, supplier and relevant advisers. Mark unknowns rather than assuming they are included or suitable. Print or annotate in a PDF app.

- [ ] 01 Define the seating task

  Desk, meeting, visitor or specialist use may call for different specifications.

- [ ] 02 Record user requirements

  Note shared or assigned use and requirements identified with appropriate advice.

- [ ] 03 Confirm model and variant

  Record dimensions, intended use, upholstery, base and the exact quoted configuration.

- [ ] 04 Compare adjustment functions

  Ask for seat-height/depth, backrest, arms and mechanism details and ranges.

- [ ] 05 Check the whole workstation

  Assess chair, desk, equipment and movement space together with relevant advice.

- [ ] 06 Understand the controls

  Request setup instructions and available demonstration options.

- [ ] 07 Clarify trial or assessment options

  Confirm model, duration, costs, condition and return or purchase terms if offered.

- [ ] 08 Verify product evidence

  Check intended-use limits and any model-specific testing or certification claims.

- [ ] 09 Check floor and care requirements

  Ask about castors, upholstery care, parts and maintenance.

- [ ] 10 Compare complete quotes

  Include freight, assembly, placement, packaging removal, GST and validity.

- [ ] 11 Confirm delivery arrangements

  Check quantity, availability, site access and whether chairs arrive assembled.

- [ ] 12 Keep support records

  Save instructions, warranty terms, supplier references and any outstanding issues.

Office chair buying checklist

Task brief, adjustment evidence & comparison

02 / REQUIREMENTS & EVIDENCE

Record the actual setting.

Complete what you know. Use a separate sheet for different settings or users. Keep sensitive personal or medical information out of general quote documents.

Site / suburb / quantity / target date

Task / shared or assigned use / relevant requirements

Existing desk / equipment / movement constraints

Required adjustments / product evidence still needed

Trial or assessment arrangement if offered / terms

Delivery / assembly / support contact / next decision

Unknowns / evidence needed / next contact: _____

Office chair buying checklist

Task brief, adjustment evidence & comparison

03 / COMPARE & CONFIRM

Ask the same questions of each option.

Record the exact product, variant and evidence. Mark Unconfirmed where an answer is missing. Price comparisons should use the same scope and specification.

Requirement / evidence	Option A	Option B	Option C
Exact model / variant / intended use
Seat dimensions / adjustment ranges
Backrest / arms / mechanism
Desk / floor compatibility
Instructions / demonstration
Trial terms / costs if offered
Testing evidence / stated limits
Freight / assembly / GST total
Availability / delivery terms
Warranty / parts / support

Preferred option / unresolved question / owner / next step

This is a purchasing record, not clinical or ergonomic advice. No chair label establishes an individual health outcome. Seek appropriate advice for discomfort or individual concerns.

Read the guide: yourofficespace.au/blog/office-chairs-newcastle